In composing this yearbook, we have sought diligently to find and picture the happiness, togetherness, competition, good times, and hard work represented in school life at RHS.

In presenting this year's memories on a month-to-month basis, we hope that we have captured for you in pictures your school year.

The Student Council as an organization at RHS is only two years old. Installation of officers for 1972-73 was held in May, 1972. Installed as officers were Bobby Ashlin, President; Carla Page, Vice-President; Marilyn McDowell, Secretary; Johnny McMahill, Treasurer; and Kathy Cantrell, Parliamentarian.

Each class has two representatives. Freshman representatives are Mike Okeefe and Kathy Pierce; Sophomore, Edgar Brown and Brenda Stinson; Junior, Sammy Bray and Judy McDonald; and Senior, Ronnie Lynch and Debbie Cowley.

The Student Council is a very active organization sponsored by Mrs. Sanders, and we are proud of the good job they are doing as representatives of the student body.

The Big Day Finally Arrived!

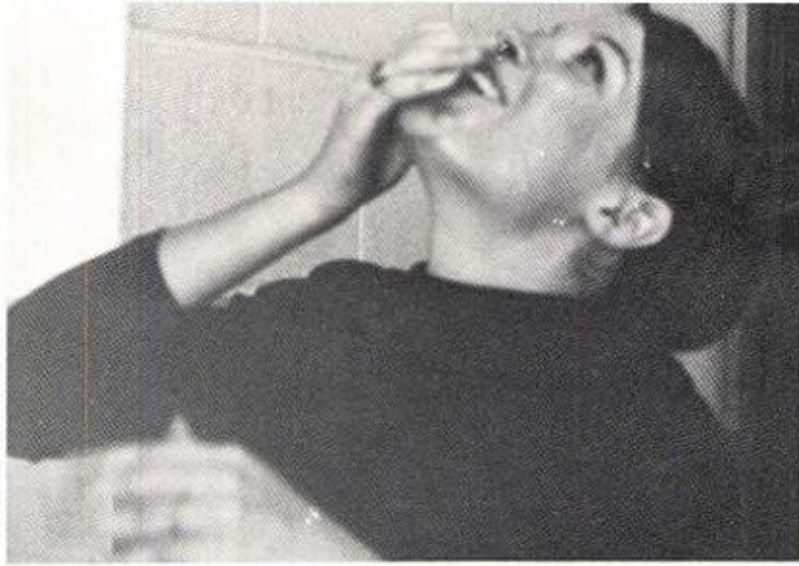

Friday, May 26, 1972, was the BIG day for the nineteen 1972 graduates of Redwater High School. Dr. Lewis Lemmond delivered the commencement address.

Baccalaureate was Sunday, May 21. Max Johnson, pastor of Redwater Baptist Church was the speaker.

William Gibson and William Banks are representatives of the Seniors as they parade in cap and gown.

F H A Initiation

I'm No. - 10 from The Lonely Hearts
Dating Service!

Running away - To Get Away

What you see is what you get.

The Freshman Initiates were required to dress in the latest fashion - as dictated by FHA officers. They wore very modern hair-dos and elaborate makeup. Their accessories included onion necklaces, one high heel shoe and one boot, long johns, a pickle, and a skillet purse. Each of the girls carried a frog in her pocket. Fun! Fun! Fun!

"Come to Momma!"

October, 1972

I just washed my hair and can't do a thing with it!

"Gimme, Gimme Good Loving!"

FHA - All the way!!!

I'm just going to tell you once - then you're on your own!

All Smiles!

Another part of the FHA initiation was at night. After the freshmen finished the daytime version of initiation, they, dressed "human" again, were honored with a weiner roast.

Junior Class Play

"The Ghost of Roaring Pines"

The Junior Class presented "The Ghost of Roaring Pines" on November 10. The play tells the story of two young men who plan to open a hotel in an old house which one of them has inherited.

They plan to get people to come to the hotel by advertising that there is a ghost in residence. But the two young men get more than they bargain for. The fun really begins when ghosts galore begin to appear.

The play is a mystery-comedy, and the cast reported having lots of fun presenting it. Of course, they nearly drove Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Clark crazy in the process.

Spirit Week

A very Spirited hall.

Do your thing, Mrs. Surratt!

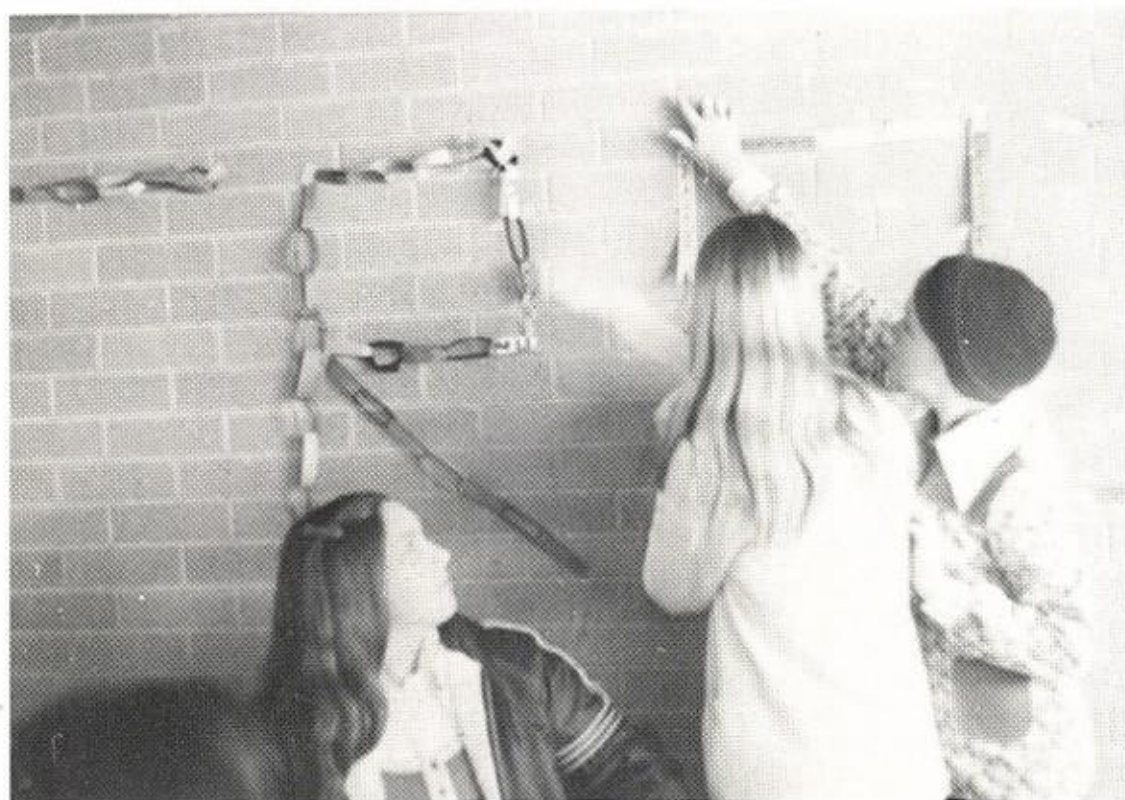

KEEP ON TRUCKIN'

Spirit Week, sponsored by the Student Council, was held for the first time January 8-12. There was competition between classes for the best posters, creative ideas, and spirit. Points were also given for the class with the most pennants and rings at the end of each day. On Friday, a pep rally was held and the class that had shown the most spirit throughout the week received the Spirit Stick and all the money raised during the week. Also at the pep rally several teachers showed their spirit!

Juniors caught in the act.

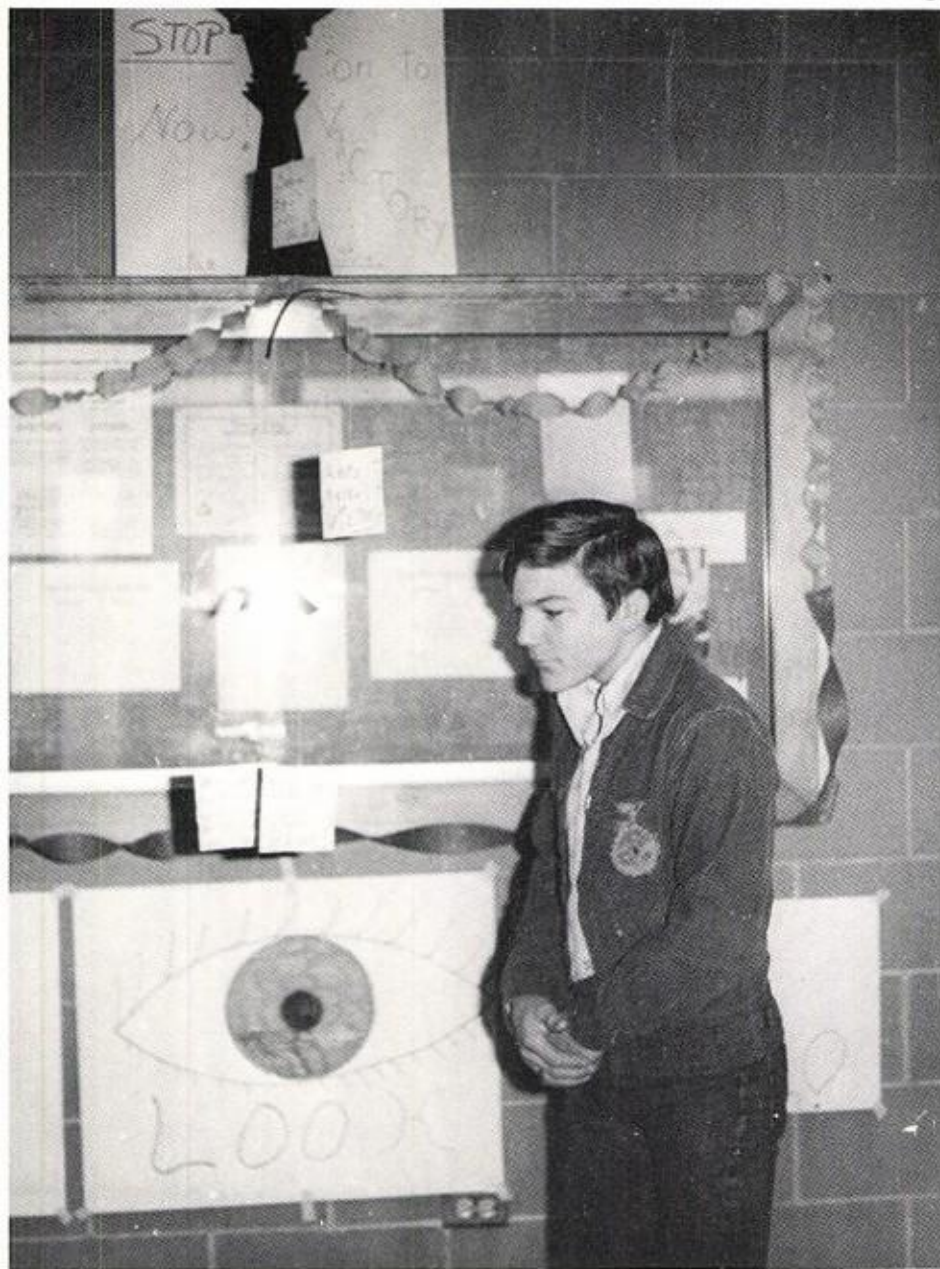

Freshmen decorate their homeroom.

Freshmen admire Spirit Stick.

January, 1973

A mobile what??

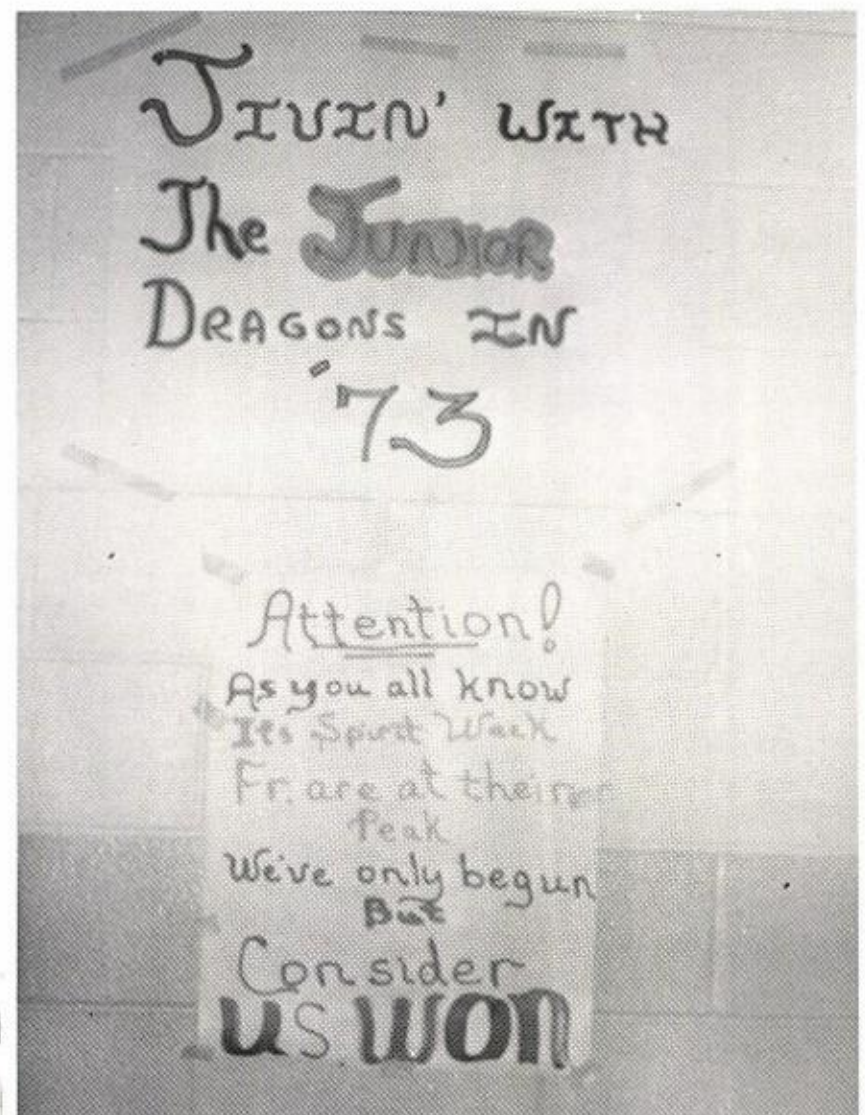

Don't quit now!

Senior President accepts Spirit Stick from Student Council President.

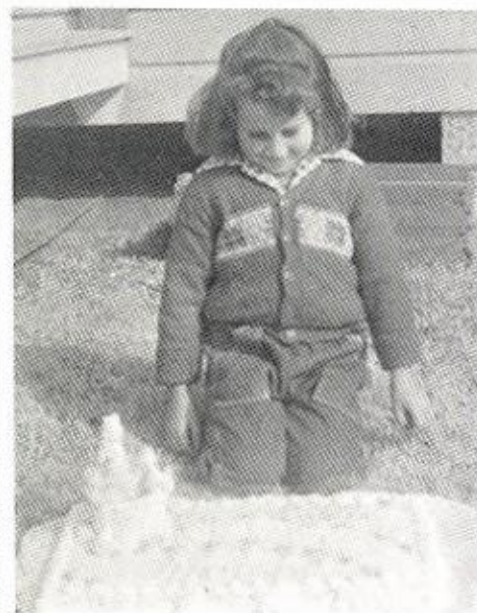

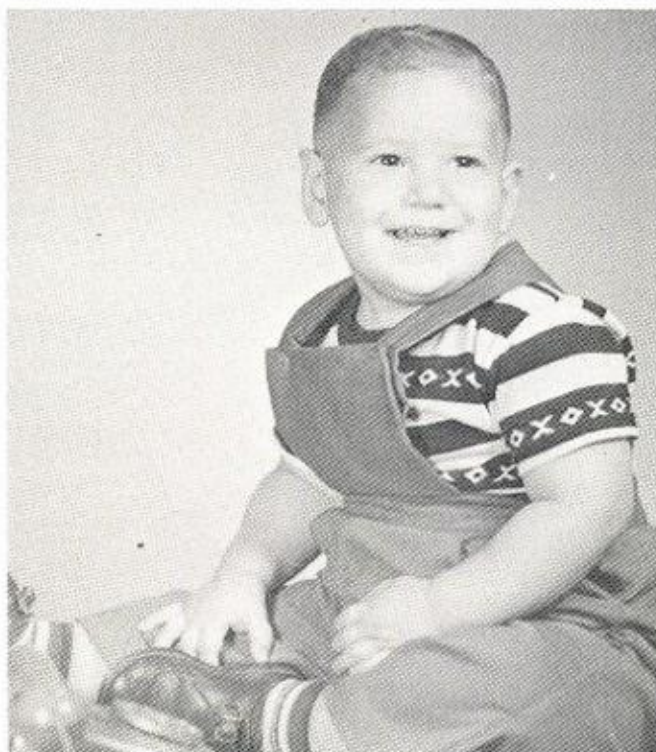

At the pep rally on Friday the Spirit Stick was presented to the Senior Class.

A proud Senior Class admires Spirit Stick and thinks back to the hard work, but it was worth it!

More spirit-raising posters.

When I Was Just a Kid

Senior Class Will

We, the 1973 Graduating Class at R.H.S., being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

I, Bobby Ashlin, leave my Student Council Presidency to anyone brave enough to want it.

I, Charles Bemis, leave my ability to aggravate Mrs. Clark to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Debbie Cowley, will my ability to be "chopped down" by Mr. Dobbs to Lonnie Spear in hopes that she can defend herself better than I have.

I, Vernon Creed, leave my place on the basketball team to Steve Bonner.

I, Peggy Dodd, leave with Donny, in hopes that we will have a lot of "little futures."

I, James Henderson, leave a knife to the "Back-stabber of R.H.S."

I, Preston Holt, leave my hopes and dreams to Mary Jane in hopes she can do something with them.

I, Gloria Johnson, will a great high school life to my little sister, Melony Palmore, in hopes that she won't have to drop out a year.

I, Danny Liles, leave my seat in the Fellowship of Christian Students to any boy who will accept the challenge.

I, Ronnie Lynch, leave my ability to get away with chewing gum and eating candy in all my classes to Johnny McMahon because he already has a good start!

I, Linda McClurg, leave my position as Basketball Captain to Sherry Sanders, so she will know how it feels to have to complain to the referees!

I, Marilyn McDowell, leave my place as editor of the annual to Carla and Martha in hopes of an even better annual next year, and also my position as "pro" benchsitter to Terry Roach!

I, Janet Nunn, sadly leave my position on the girls basketball team in hopes that Theresa O'Keefe will keep the guards great pass play combination alive!

I, Kathleen Noel, will my ingenuity to escape chemistry class as often as possible to make tuna-fish sandwiches for the concession stand to anyone who gets the opportunity.

I, Jeanne Pratt, leave my Yankee accent to anyone that will take it.

I, Eva Ray, will my place as Basketball Manager to anyone who can stand all those crying eyes.

I, Gary Schwarck, will my ability to take Physical Science three years in a row to Ricky Keister.

I, James Shields, will my ability to be smart and to play basketball to Willis Sanders, because he'll need it.

I, Rhonda Smith, will my intelligence in chemistry to Denise Pipes and hope she passes.

I, Sandra Smith, will my seat in Records to whoever wants it.

I, Debbie Spivey, leave my ability to tend to everyone's business but my own to Susan Pierce in hopes that she gets in on more gossip than I managed to.

I, David Strickland, leave my name and my ability to sleep in class to David Strickland and hope he gets away with it.

I, Emma Tefteller, leave my giggling to Coach McAlister in hopes that he will understand it some day.

I, Rodney Tefteller, leave Redwater School, one way or the other.

Superintendent's Message

Students, Faculty, Auxiliary employees, Patrons, and Friends,

I would like to say "Thanks" for the loyal support given our school this year 1972-73.

To the members of the annual staff and your sponsor, I wish to express my thanks to you for placing into our hands a picture of our activities as we have lived them from day to day.

To you, Students, I hope that you will examine carefully and painstakingly the thoughts of others, particularly those who seek to induce you to action which they advocate and that you will not commit yourself to any action until you satisfy yourself that what you do is just, kind, honorable.

To you, Graduates, each year I find youth facing a world of choice. Each choice will affect your life. Your success or failure will depend upon choices. I trust you choose principles that will bring joy and happiness in all the days of your life.

Sincerely,

D. E. Brooks
